

ESOP Special session

24th September 2007

14:00 - 17:00 Room 118/119

European Society of Oncology Pharmacy

To increase quality for patients - additional support through Oncology Pharmacy

Chair: A. Astier (France)

Opening lecture

Patient demands presented through the results of a questionnaire

Vesna Pavlica (Croatia)

Lectures:

Elderly patients and cancer – how pharmacists and physicians can add competence

K.Meier / G.Wiedemann (Germany)

QMS in cancer treatment - based on collaboration

G. Sprossmann / J. Potenberg (Germany)

Interdisciplinary creation and evaluation of drug information leaflets for oncology patients

D. Steiger / R. Terkola (Austria)

Fatigue a challenge to patients with cancer

P. Hartvig / G.Wagenius (Sweden)

Mucositis – how pharmacists and nurses organise best support

R. Bodenmüller-Kroll (Germany) / B. Sobkowiak (Poland)

Collaboration of physicians and pharmacists treating oncology patients at the intensive care unit

D.Haider / B.Mähr (Austria)

16:00 Roundtable:

What is still needed and how to serve patient demands

Chairs: M. Sonc (Slovenia) D. Vrbanec (Croatia)

Participants:

A. Astier, P. Hartvig, K. Meier, G. Sprossmann, R. Terkola, G. Wiedemann