Election Provisions

§1 Definitions

1. Member in Good Standing shall mean a person who:
  - a) is duly registered as a member no later than 31 December 2025; and
  - b) has paid the full membership fee for the year 2026 prior to the opening of the election.
2. Duly Registered shall mean that at minimum the member's first name, last name, and valid email address have been submitted and recorded in the official membership register.
3. Active Suffrage shall mean the right to vote.
4. Passive Suffrage shall mean the right to stand for election.

§2 Active Suffrage

1. Only Members in Good Standing shall be entitled to exercise Active Suffrage.
2. Voting rights are strictly personal, individual, and non-transferable.
3. The right to vote shall be exercised exclusively by the individual ESOP member. It may not be exercised by, through, or on behalf of any national society.

§3 Conduct of the Election

1. The election shall be conducted by personal participation through an online voting procedure.
2. The election process shall ensure the integrity, confidentiality, and personal nature of the vote.

§4 Nominations

1. Any Member in Good Standing may submit nominations.
2. In countries with more than nine (9) duly registered members, nominations must be supported in accordance with the formally established nomination requirements.
3. Nominations shall be submitted by individual members.
4. Where national societies exist in which ESOP members are organised, such societies shall have no independent right to nominate or vote unless expressly provided for in the applicable Election Guideline. (Election Guideline §4,3)

§5 Passive Suffrage

1. Any member whose nomination has been duly submitted and accepted in accordance with the applicable nomination criteria shall be eligible for election.
2. Eligibility for election is independent of membership in any national society.

§6 Mandate of Delegates

1. Elected delegates represent the members of their respective country.
2. Delegates do not represent any national society.
3. Delegates shall perform their mandate in accordance with the ESOP Delegate Guideline.
